

Shape your future in our company as Corporate Development Manager Energy DACH (m/f/d)

The role

- ✓ Co-shaping the Group's energy transformation through M&A transactions in the field of decarbonization / renewable energies
- ✓ Carrying out market and company analyses
- ✓ Analysis and evaluation of business plans
- ✓ Identification and approach of investment targets
- ✓ Managing due diligence processes
- ✓ Support for M&A transactions and negotiation rounds

The formula for your success

- ✓ Successfully completed studies in business administration, finance or similar degree
- ✓ At least 2 years of professional experience in the field of M&A, due diligence, strategy experience
- ✓ Initial experience in the field of renewable energies desirable or a very high affinity for it
- ✓ Process and methodological know-how from the M&A transaction area
- ✓ Strong analytical and communication skills
- ✓ Willingness and flexibility to travel
- ✓ Very good German and English language skills are essential

We offer you

- ✓ Non-tariff income with special payments
- ✓ 30 days holidays
- ✓ Employer-financed pension plan
- ✓ Other social benefits (including meal allowance, health management, etc.)
- ✓ Attractive training and further education opportunities
- ✓ Collegial working atmosphere and company events
- ✓ A permanent full-time position
- ✓ Trust-based working hours and the possibility of mobile working

You want to contribute to a globally active company and work with qualified colleagues to create added value for the company. You can expect a demanding and international working environment in which you will grow with the challenging tasks. Join us!

DCC plc is a leading international sales, marketing and services group with a clear focus on performance and growth in the energy, technology and healthcare sectors.

DCC Energy is a leading provider of energy and we support our customers on their way to the energy transition with 9.000 employees in to date 13 countries.

DCC Germany Holding GmbH and its subsidiaries Progas GmbH and TEGA GmbH combine energy activities in Germany. DCC Energy Austria GmbH operates in Austria with its subsidiary EnergieDirect.

As Corporate Development Manager DACH, you play a central role in advancing our growth agenda by supporting and executing acquisitions, divestitures, and strategic initiatives in the DACH region.

We look forward to receiving your application, which you should send to us, stating the earliest possible starting date and your salary expectations.

DCC Germany Holding GmbH

Personalabteilung
Werner-von-Siemens-Straße 18
97076 Würzburg

Telefon: 0931 2093-0
E-Mail: karriere@dcc-germany.de